

INTRODUCTION TO GARDENING WEBINAR

If you are new to gardening and still trying to figure out how to plan a garden, figure out terminology such as heirlooms, hybrids, zones, or if you would like to garden but only have a small space this course will have something for you!

This will be a Lunch n' Learn series that will meet on Wednesdays starting January 27th and go through February 24th from noon to 1pm eastern.

There is no cost for this program but registration is required at least a week prior to the session(s) you plan to attend by visiting: <https://bit.ly/3r7rpSq>.

Once registered you will receive connection information at least two days prior to the session.

If you have additional questions please contact Valerie Clingerman, 812-882-3509 or clingerman@purdue.edu.
