

PURDUE EXTENSION STEUBEN COUNTY

4-H POULTRY WORKSHEET

Grade 6

Name: _____

4-H Club: _____

1. What is one benefit of a chicken tractor? _____

2. Match the terminology with the correct terminology for their young.

Chicken
Turkey
Guinea
Duck
Goose

Gosling
Duckling
Chick
Keet
Poult

3. Some cells such as blood cells, feather follicle cells, and skin always grows by cell multiplication, called _____.

4. _____ cells and _____ cells (after hatching) grow by cell enlargement, called hypertrophy.

5. True or False: The testes of poultry are located internally, which is opposite of most mammals.

6. _____ has been grown on certified organic ground using no artificial chemicals or genetically modified organism (GMOs) seeds.

7. What should you do with the chicks that have an improbable mother? _____

Answers can be found in Storey's Guide to Raising Poultry

Purdue University is an equal access/equal opportunity institution.
This material may be available in alternative formats.

8. _____ is when poultry feathers do not fluff out, making them always appear in fabulous condition.
9. If you spend time with newly hatched goslings, or talk to them while they are still in the egg, they will be attached to you the rest of their lives. This is called _____.
10. What grain has the highest protein content? _____
11. Write the name of the fowl pox next to its symptoms.
- _____ : The bird breaks out with sores on the face, comb, and wattle, which will become dry and crusty
- _____ : The bird breaks out with blisters or sores in the mouth and throat
12. Blood spots in eggs are created because of _____ of the hen.
13. True or False: The egg contains all of the necessary elements to support the life of the embryo.

14. Label the diagram.

ANATOMY OF A TYPICAL CHICKEN

