What is Mini 4-H?

Mini 4-H is designed for K-2 youth and is part of the traditional 4-H program, serving youth in grades 3-12.

4-H is the largest youth serving organization in the country. It is a volunteer-led program that reaches youth in both rural and urban settings. Professional leadership is given by Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service. Local leadership is provided by 4-H Youth Extension Educators and 4-H Program Assistants. Support for 4-H programs is a joint effort of local county government, Purdue University, and the USDA.

4-H programs are hands-on, age-appropriate, and university-based. 4-H helps youth improve their self-confidence; learn subject matter; and develop important skills including leadership, citizenship, communication, and decision-making that can be applied over a lifetime. 4-H is young people sharing, doing, and learning together in all kinds of projects, events, activities and informal situations with the guidance of their adult family members and other adult volunteer club leaders. Members choose projects that fit them and where they live. Group activities and events such as talent contests, trips, camps, fairs, shows, and workshops provide additional opportunities and learning experiences.

4-H is open to all youth, regardless of their ethnic background, race, religion, gender or personal creed. Most 4-H clubs have meetings once a month. During these business meetings, decisions are made concerning group sponsored activities, community service efforts, project opportunities, fund-raising projects, etc.

The Purpose of 4-H

The purpose of 4-H is to provide real life experiences for youth through a fun, action-oriented, and practical program, as well as to provide opportunities for parents and other interested adults to work with youth in enhancing their development.

The major focus of 4-H should be on the activities of your local 4-H club. Adult volunteers serve as 4-H club leaders and plan and carry out organized learning experiences with youth. The many county and state 4-H activities are secondary, as their purpose is to support and reinforce what has been learned in local programs.

The Origins of 4-H

4-H as we know it began around 1900 as a means of reaching parents with improved farm and home practices. American farmers had experienced poor economic times for thirty years, and it was risky for them to try a newly recommended farm practice. In 1902, a few Midwestern school teachers developed some crop demonstrations with their students, who in turn shared their successes with their parents and families. These school projects developed small groups that covered a single topic such as: beef, corn, gardening, or canning. By 1909, some of these clubs were called 3-H clubs, and in 1911 the name 4-H was finally adopted.

What Can Mini 4-H Offer Your Child?

Through the eyes of a youngster - a Mini 4-H member will:

- Learn by doing things that appeal and are meaningful to them.
- Make friends, belong to a group, and give and receive acceptance.

Through the eyes of an adult, each Mini 4-H member will one day become a contributing and caring member of the community because of the knowledge and life skills they learned in 4-H. These youngsters will learn how to:

My heart to greater loyalty,
My hands to larger service, and
My health to better living, for My club, my community, my country, and my world."
