Digging In

What size is your garden? _____

Describe your garden location (ie. Is it in a flat spot or on a slope? Is it behind your house or at a grandparent's or friend's house? Does it have a fence? Is yours made up of raised beds?) _____

What is the direction of your garden rows, or which way do your containers face? _____

We do not necessarily care what you spent on your garden this year, but it is good for you to understand that things have a cost. Even poster boards are not free. Approximately how much do you think you spent or will spend planting, tending, and harvesting your garden this year? Circle one.

$0.00-$5.00 $5.00-$15.00 $15.00-$30.00 $30.00-$50.00 Greater than $50.00

What tools were necessary for your garden this year, from planting to harvest time? _____

Watching it Grow

Name three vegetables that grow best in mounds or hills.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Name a vegetable that grows best when planted in double rows or in close proximity to plants of the same kind.

Even though you likely will not exhibit everything you planted in the garden, list the items you planted this year.

Which ones do you hope to exhibit, or if you are doing the poster option, what do you plan to share on your poster?

Label the five types of tomatoes below. Work bank: Cherry, Grape, Heirloom, Juice, Paste

Harvest

Provide two different examples of produce packaging you see at the grocery store. List the vegetable, the type of packaging, and why you think it is packaged that way.

Vegetable	Type of Packaging	Why is it packaged this way?

What was the hardest thing about having a garden? _____

What did you like best about having a garden? _____
