

October meeting for the 4H adult leaders was called to order at 7 p.m. by vice president Linda Dillon.

The American and 4H pledges were led by Linda Dillon.

Minutes from the last meeting were not available.

Treasurer's report was given by Connie Brittingham and was approved has presented.

In Correspondence a get well card was passed around for Jim Wozniewski. No other correspondence was presented.

There was nothing new in the 4H in the news.

Auction committee was presented by Deanne Nagel. They met last month and approved the rule changes presented to them. Their new officers were elected and they will meet after the leaders meeting tonight October 15th.

Horse and pony was presented by Vicki Gianni. They met last week and went over the Mini Horse and Pony changes as well as combined Horse Lovers club with Horse and Pony.

PR retention was reported by Vicky Gianni. The Fantastic 4Hers put on a fantastic 4-H Expo with lots of superintendents presenting their projects. They drew a large crowd and got lots of compliments. Many new families attended.

Vicky Gianni reported for Junior Leaders about their upcoming hayride. They have their new officers installed and their completion trip is also upcoming. December 5th is the next meeting for the Junior Leaders.

County Committee was reported by Connie Brittingham. They reviewed the committee reports, held superintendent elections and talked about geraniums as well as project completion numbers. A reminder was made of the chicken dinner coming up as well as the banquet in January.

The current calendar dates were reviewed and an additional date was listed to bring in clothing for the Heritage Quilters to display on the 26th-27th of October. Contact Linda Dillon for information

Under Old Business a motion was made to cancel the November meeting by Amy Hein and seconded by Ellie Knizner

In the Comments from the Educators Julie reminded us that enrollment is open and encouraged everyone to enroll early. The extension office has some large 4H signs that are available to borrow for events. If anyone is available to help the Wozniewskis run the projects that they are superintendent for please contact Julie. And leaders were encouraged to take the Jo-Ann's donations home with them and create projects with their clubs.

Under new business Amy Hein gave out the schedule for the barn breakfast. Tuesday will be provided by the Beef Barn, Wednesday provided by the Goat Barn, Thursday provided by the Sheep Barn, Friday provided by the Swine Department Saturday provided by the Dairy barn, and Sunday will be provided by the general superintendents. Amy also mentioned that Mrs. Crowell from Lowell is offering chalk signs for sale or parties as a fundraiser for the clubs. Please contact Amy for information. Also presented was a activity for the fair called Supreme showman. Which will be discussed at the next committee meeting. Connie Brittingham presented the budget Vicki Gianni made a motion to approve the budget as presented and Ellie Knizner seconded that motion.

Under Club news Patti Kvachkoff presented for the Crown Clovers who held their officer elections and sold clovers at the St John Tractor Supply. Vicki Gianni presented for Saddle and Spurs who will be hosting a trunk or treat at Jane ball school on October 25th. It was also presented that Slippery Saddles will be hosting a tac swap Mother's Day weekend in the industrial building.

A motion to adjourn it was made by Amy Hein and seconded by Connie Brittingham in the meeting was adjourned at 7:47 p.m.

Submitted by Danielle Ray, Secretary