General: Pertains to all Jr. Directors, Counselors & Counselors in Training

1. Camp Staff will be directly responsible to the Camp Director and Extension Educators.
2. Help maintain a clean, controlled, safe, learning and fun camp session for each and every one present at the camp.
3. To behave in such a manner which will set a good example for other campers. This means no smoking, no controlled substances, no use of foul language and no dangerous stunts.
4. All camp staff will participate in camp, cabin and restroom clean up at the end of camp. Jr. Directors and Camp Counselors will be released AFTER the final inspection of the camp is completed.
5. All Camp Staff will be required to turn in cell phones & keys.
5. All Camp Staff will work with the Educators to help prepare camp for camper arrival and release.
6. Jr. Directors and Counselors are required to be at all trainings. Unless they have been excused by their Extension Educator or the Camp Director.
7. Fill out and return a Camp Application to their Extension Educator.
8. Set an example for campers by following the behavioral expectations and participating in all camp activities.
9. Failure to fulfill the above responsibilities may result in the following:
 - a. Verbal warning
 - b. Demoted to a regular camper position
 - c. Parents called and sent home

Specific to Jr. Directors:

1. Jr. Director are to work with the Camp Director and Extension Educators to: determine the camp theme and design the camp t-shirt; provide input on class sessions and special guests; announce daily activities to campers; develop lineup activities; organize cabin inspection daily; plan and coordinate social activities for camp staff at trainings; plan and coordinate daily recreation activities; serve as a committee chairperson on one of the camp committees; and help plan the closing ceremonies with the counselors and adult staff.
2. Jr. Directors will be teaching/assist teaching a class this year. You will work with Educators to prepare a lesson plan, create a supply list and develop a teaching style during staff trainings.
3. Required to attend Jr. Director planning meeting and all three (3) camp staff trainings. Failure to do so could result in being dismissed as a Jr. Director.
4. Jr. Directors must be willing to work as a team. Not only as the group of Jr. Directors, but also with all camp staff. They must be willing to communicate with and direct camp counselors to conduct the daily activities of 4-H Camp. Although Jr. Directors have no activity or group counselor responsibilities they are still considered part of the overall group of 4-H'ers participating at camp.
5. Expected to help maintain order of counselors and campers. All discipline issues should be reported to the Camp Director or an Extension Educator.
