

November 6, 2019

Hey, Junior Leaders! You all did a great job with the Halloween Carnival! To think that in such a short time we would have an inviting carnival decorated and protected from the cold, wet weather was a real team effort, and our visitors enjoyed the games, candy and prizes! The leftover candy and prizes were made into goody bags and were very well received by the youth at Wellspring Center for Transitional Families.

Our next meeting is Monday November 11th (Veterans Day) at 7:00 pm at the Wilber Kendall Room on the fairgrounds. Our agenda will include the following:

- Discussing/approving the plan of our activities for 2020
- We have a lamp post on the square in Martinsville for the holidays—sign up at this meeting to help decorate it in a few weeks.
- Ring bells for the Salvation Army at the Martinsville Rural King on Friday, Dec. 13, 7-9 pm. Sign up at this meeting to be part of the fun.
- Writing thank you cards for military veterans
- Activities to make you think
- Packaging school supplies for students in need
- Discuss adopting a family for Christmas

Be sure to bring some school supplies to be donated to youth in Morgan County who really need them. Items to bring include (but are not limited to) Crayons, pencils, pens, scissors, erasers, glue sticks, notebook paper, watercolor paint sets, tape and Kleenex.

The Community Service committee will meet at 6:30 pm in the Wilber Kendall Room. Those members are: Justin Amos, Gracie Wunderlich, Piper Phillips, Katherine Jackson.

See you on Veterans Day, Monday November 11th.
Sincerely,

Rena Sheldon
