

GRIEVANCE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

BOONE COUNTY 4-H GRIEVANCE POLICY
AND PROCEDURE FOR 4-H COUNCIL POLICY RELATED MATTERS

Filing Procedure:

1. A grievance must be presented in writing and notarized using the Indiana 4-H Grievance Form to the Boone County 4-H Council President or the 4-H Extension Educator.
2. A grievance must be presented in writing, accompanied by a $50 (fifty dollar) deposit. The 4-H Council Executive Committee may, at its discretion, waive this fee in case of hardship. The grievance must state the name of the person(s); the specific reason for the grievance, the rules that govern the case, and in cases of exhibits, the exhibit name and/or animal number. The burden of proof shall reside with the party filing the grievance. The $50 deposit shall be returned if the grievance is upheld. The $50 deposit shall be forfeited to Boone County 4-H Club, Inc. if the grievance is not upheld.
3. NOTE: concerns regarding staff or volunteers are not issues for which a grievance may be filed. 4-H Volunteers are assigned by the 4-H Extension Educator. Concerns regarding volunteers or other individuals should be addressed directly with the 4-H Extension Educator.
4. The 4-H Council President shall appoint a five (5) person non-biased grievance committee and will present the grievance to this committee within 15 days.
5. The 4-H Council President shall notify the person(s) verbally as soon as is practical, and in writing within seven (7) days of the grievance committee's decision.

Appeals:

1. A person may appeal the decision of this grievance committee to the Boone County 4-H Council by providing written notification to the 4-H Council President within 15 days of this grievance committee's decision.
2. A person may appeal the decision of the Boone County 4-H Council to the Boone County Extension Board by providing written notification to the Extension Board President within 15 days of the 4-H Council's decision. The decision of the Extension Board will be final.

Rev. 11/17

BOONE COUNTY 4-H GRIEVANCE POLICY
AND PROCEDURE FOR 4-H FAIR RELATED MATTERS

Filing Procedure:

1. A grievance must be presented in writing and notarized using the Indiana 4-H Grievance Form to the Boone County 4-H Fair Board President, the superintendent of the project or the 4-H Extension Educator within 24 hours of the alleged violation. In the event a grievance is presented after a judging has begun on the item or activity in question, the judge will proceed and the grievance will be handled as if the grievance was presented after the judging.
2. A grievance must be presented in writing, accompanied by a $50 (fifty dollar) deposit. The Fair Board Executive Committee may, at its discretion, waive this fee in case of hardship. The grievance must state the name of the person(s); the specific reason for the grievance, the rules that govern the case, and in cases of exhibits, the exhibit name and/or animal number. The burden of proof shall reside with the party filing the grievance. The $50 deposit shall be returned if the grievance is upheld. The $50 deposit shall be forfeited to Boone County 4-H Club, Inc. if the grievance is not upheld.
3. NOTE: concerns regarding staff or volunteers are not issues for which a grievance may be filed. 4-H Volunteers are assigned by the 4-H Extension Educator. Concerns regarding volunteers or other individuals should be addressed directly with the 4-H Extension Educator.
4. The Fair Board President will present the grievance to the Fair Board at his/her earliest opportunity. The President will notify the person(s) that a grievance has been filed against him/her, and inform him/her of the meeting date, time and location when the grievance will be presented, and invite him/her to be present.

Penalties:

1. The Boone County 4-H Fair Board will impose appropriate penalties as are deemed necessary. In the case of 4-H project violations, any penalty imposed will be limited only to the 4-H member in question and only to the project in which the 4-H member was found to be in violation.
2. The Fair Board President shall notify the person(s) verbally as soon as is practical, and in writing within seven (7) days of the violation and the penalty imposed.

Decisions of Judges at the Boone County 4-H Fair:

. All decisions made by the 4-H judges are final and are not subject to grievance or appeal unless it is charged that an exhibit has been altered or the 4-H member did not prepare the exhibit.

Appeals:

1. A person(s) may appeal the decision of the Boone County 4-H Fair Board to the Council at the Council's next regularly scheduled meeting or at a special called meeting. The person(s) making the appeal must give written notice to the 4-H Council President within 15 days of the Fair Board's decision.
2. A person may appeal the decision of the Boone County 4-H Council to the Boone County Extension Board by providing written notification to the Extension Board President within 15 days of the 4-H Council's decision. The decision of the Extension Board will be final.

Rev. 11/17

1. All decisions made by the 4-H judges are final and are not subject to grievance or appeal unless it is charged that an exhibit has been altered or the 4-H member did not prepare the exhibit.

Appeals:

1. A person(s) may appeal the decision of the Boone County 4-H Fair Board to the Council at the Council's next regularly scheduled meeting or at a special called meeting. The person(s) making the appeal must give written notice to the 4-H Council President within 15 days of the Fair Board's decision.

2. A person may appeal the decision of the Boone County 4-H Council to the Boone County Extension Board by providing written notification to the Extension Board President within 15 days of the 4-H Council's decision. The decision of the Extension Board will be final.
