

Floyd County 4-H Clubs

Bailando Lamas - A club for youth in grades K - 12 to focus on caring for, training and showing llamas and alpacas. Meetings are held at Newlin Hall. While meetings and activities are geared solely toward learning about llamas & alpacas, members are encouraged to participate in all 4-H projects. Kaitlyn Simpson, ksimpson84@live.com

Blazing Saddles Horse & Pony - A club for youth in grades K - 12 that want to learn about horses. Meetings are held at the Floyd County 4-H Fairgrounds, 2818 Green Valley Road, New Albany. The club also visits a wide variety of clinicians who teach equine dentistry, equine chiropractic, body scoring and various other areas of equine management. Mounted meetings are held where members who own or lease a horse can strengthen their English and Western skills. Youth are not required to own a horse to participate in the club. Meetings are held monthly in the winter and every 2 weeks in the spring. Debbie Haeberlin, debbiehaeberlin@gmail.com

Discovery Club - A club for youth who do not want to join a club that has meetings or are undecided on which club(s) to participate. Tammy Kruer, tkruer@nafcs.k12.in.us.

4-H Dog Club - A Club for grades 3-12 and meets once a month on Sunday at Newlin Hall. Gavin Hagan 812-786-0881 or Gavin.Hagan12345@gmail.com

Floyd County Blue Ribbon Rabbit Club- A club for grades K-12 which meet once a month on Thursday at Newlin Hall. Troy & Christina McKinley, Hailey Evans, hailey.evans1@icloud.com

Floyds Knobs STEM Club for Floyds Knobs Elementary youth. Meets after school. Sam McCollum, mccolluj@purdue.edu

Greenville Mini's Backyard Critters-A club for youth in grades K - 2 who are interested in all projects and activities. They will also learn about animals and showing animals. Tammy Kruer, tkruer@nafcs.k12.in.us and Athenus Mattingly, amattingly@nafcs.k12.in.us

Hazelwood Bullpups, Meets at Hazelwood. Cora Flispart, 812-945-7286 or cflispart@gmail.com

Jags Clover Club- Grades 3-12, Meets at Highland Hills twice a month. Debbie Haeberlin, debbiehaeberlin@gmail.com

Jr. Leaders - A club for youth in grades 7-12 to provide Adult 4-H Volunteers with additional assistance in 4-H clubs, as well as assisting with county activities. Jr. Leaders also serve as mentors and role models to the younger 4-H members by sharing their experiences with them. Activities include fundraising, community service and project development. Meetings are at the Floyd County Extension office. Sam McCollum, Advisor (812.948.5470) mccolluj@purdue.edu and Holly Eurton, Leader - Heisraggedyann@msn.com

Master Builder's Club - A club for youth in grades 3 - 12 who are interested in building and programming Lego Mindstorm EV3 Robots. Will also include basics of computer coding design. Most meetings are held at Newlin Hall, Floyd County 4-H Fairgrounds once a month. Sam McCollum - mccolluj@purdue.edu

Optimist 4-H Club - A club for youth in grades K - 12 who are interested in working with all projects and activities. The club meets at the Georgetown Optimist Club where youth participate in crafts, cooking, demonstrations, and individual and group projects. Bev Oehrle 502.345.7569

Floyd County Safe Shooters – This is a club for youth in grades 3 - 12 who are interested in learning about and developing their archery skills and safe handgun practices under the guidance of certified instructors. Archery meetings are held at the Georgetown Optimist Club. Firearms meetings are held at the Indian Creek Shooting Center, Gun Club Rd, Georgetown, Indiana. John Hanka, ejhankajr@aol.com

Paws, Claws & Hooves - A club for youth in grades 3 - 12 who are interested in all projects such as animals and showing animals. Meetings are held monthly in the Greenville area. Activities include fundraising, community service and project development. Tammy Kruer, tkruer@nafcs.k12.in.us and Athenus Mattingly, amattingly@nafcs.k12.in.us.

Shamrocks Club - A club for youth in grades K - 12 who are interested in all projects. Meetings are held monthly in Newlin Hall, located in the 4-H Fairgrounds in New Albany. Kristan Trail, shamrocksfloyd18@gmail.com

4-H Farm Friends – A club for youth in grades K-12 who are interested in all projects and activities. This club meets approximately once a month in the Georgetown area. Club meetings will have a focus on activities and education related to farming (gardening, animals, foods, crafts, etc.) and nature (forestry, geology, wildlife, etc.). Parents are encouraged to attend and participate in activities with the youth members. Contact Melissa Drago at Farm.Friends.4H.Floyd.County@gmail.com for information.

Floyd County 4-H Beef Club - For information email Scotty Hollis, Scotty.hollis@wareinc.com

Floyd County 4-H Poultry Club – K-12th grades meet the second Monday of each month at the Georgetown, Optimist Club. For information email Sue Demers, SueD.4h@yahoo.com

Follow us on Facebook and check us out on our websites:

State website - www.extension.purdue.edu

County website – www.extension.purdue.edu/floyd -under the Youth tab

2019-2020