FASHION REVUE PUBLIC SHOW

Saturday, July 18, 2020
Show begins at 7:00 p.m.

All contestants must report backstage by 6:30 p.m. and be dressed and ready to go. Please be back on stage and ready to line up.

It is very important that you report on time and be ready to model. We must line everyone up and let the narrators know if people are missing so their names will not be read. This will allow us to begin the show on time.

You will be seated together in the audience in the following groups:

Free Choice

Grade 3

Informal or casual wear

Grade 4

Separates

Grade 5

Suits & Coats

Grade 6

Dress Up Wear

Grade 7

During the Public Show, a narrator will be describing your outfit as you model it on stage. Type (double spaced) a description of your garment and include accessory items. This will be used as the narration as you model your outfit during the Public Fashion Revue Show on Saturday, July 18. You may want to include information on the fiber content, or a picture, sketch, clip or description from the pattern envelope of your garment.

You must turn in a rough draft of your commentary with your registration. Attach a separate piece of paper with your typed (double space) commentary to this registration form. Commentaries should be a maximum of 250 words and may be edited.
