JUDGING:	Friday, July 16, 9 AM
RELEASE:	Immediately following judging
STATE FAIR ENTRIES:	No entries, County project only

Project Description:

There are many benefits derived from learning more about barbecue cooking. Cooking on the grill is a fun way to entertain family and friends. You will learn a tasty new way to prepare your favorite foods. You will learn about the different parts of a chicken for grilling as well as how to shop for them. You will gain valuable knowledge and experience in meal preparation. No alcohol is allowed in recipes or in displays.

All posters, notebooks, and display boards must include a reference list indicating where information was obtained, giving credit to original author.

Levels:

Beginner	Grades 3-5
Intermediate	Grades 6-8
Advanced	Grades 9-12

Champions will be awarded in Beginner, Intermediate, & Advanced Chicken Barbecue. An overall Grand Champion Chicken Barbecue will be awarded. One (1) Grand Champion will be selected from all Champion Barbecue (Beef & Chicken) posters.

Exhibit Requirements:

Beginner: Grade 3

Poster Division

- Read the manual.
- Build the fire and barbecue boneless, skinless chicken breasts at least three (3) times for your family.
- Complete the record sheet.
- Exhibit at the Fair: A poster 22" x 28" showing pictures of you barbecuing step-by-step. See poster rules, Page 30, #15.

Beginner: Grades 4-5

Cook-Off Division

- Read the manual.
- Complete the record sheet.
- You must barbecue at least four (4) times for your family.
- Enter the County Fair barbecuing contest.

Boneless, skinless chicken breasts must be barbecued on the 4-H Grounds. You must have a minimum of one (1) pound of chicken.

Bring charcoal grill, a table, and all equipment, supplies, chicken, and ingredients that you will need for the contest. Contestant must build his/her own fire and barbecue his/her own chicken. You will be judged on use of equipment, building the fire, timing, appearance, doneness, and taste. Presentation of product to the judge is very important.

OR/BOTH

Poster Division– Beginner

You may elect to exhibit a poster instead of participating in the cook-off contest or you may do both. The rules for the poster are as follows:

- Read the manual.
- You must barbecue at least four (4) times for your family.
- Complete the record sheet.
- Exhibit at the fair, a poster 22" x 28" on safety in chicken preparation (for example, cooking, thawing, handling, use of utensils, and/or general preparation). See poster rules, Page 30, #15.
