

Friday 4-H Nugget

Seasons Greetings,

Today marks the last Friday 4-H Nugget of the 2020 year and gives us a time to reflect on all of the amazing accomplishments we have had. 2020 has sure been different for the 4-H program and our personal lives, but we have embraced the changes and as the 4-H Motto says: "To make the best better." Check out our video message here.

As you are enjoying the holiday season, take time to complete your 4-H enrollment, fill out a scholarship application or two and spend time connecting with others. In January our first Friday 4-H Nugget will be sent on January 8, 2021 (delayed one week). Our office will also be closed on December 24-25, 2020 and January 1, 2021 in observance of the holidays. We wish you and your family a joyful holiday season and a great New Year.

All the best,

Robby Kelly, Sthele Greybar, & Anna Balas

Our next Volunteer training will be on January 19, 2021 via zoom at 7:00 PM and we request one person from each club attend. This will be a great session on virtual 4-H Club meetings and engagement. The session will be recorded as well. Save this link for the meeting.

Heritage Park Blocks

We've found the perfect gift to commemorate your favorite 10-year 4-Her! The Fairgrounds is offering engraved Heritage Park perimeter planter blocks in exchange for donations! With this contribution, your name or business logo will be engraved on the block. Donated funds will be used to complete wind damage repairs before the 2021 Fair and other park improvements.

Elkhart County 4-H and the Fairgrounds have a longstanding partnership of supporting 4-H in Elkhart County. With the absence of the 2020 Fair and many rental events, the Fairgrounds has sustained heavy financial losses this year. Now's your chance to give back to the Fair!

For more information or to purchase your block, visit www.4HFair.org/ParkBlocks.
