

Frugal Fashions

(Not a State Fair Project)

(To enroll in the Frugal Fashions project, select Consumer Clothing: Frugal Fashions in 4HOnline.)

Beginning - Grades 3,4,5

- Visit two consignment shops and record findings in record book.
- Visit two Goodwill type shops and record findings in record book.
- Select and purchase an outfit for yourself that would be suitable for play or recreation. These garments are to be purchased at consignment or Goodwill type shops. Price matters.
- Model outfit in the county Fashion Show at the County Fair.
- Exhibit poster explaining what you learned about Frugal Fashions.
- A completed record sheet signed by your 4-H leader must be presented along with your exhibit at project check-in at the fair.

Intermediate - Grades 6,7,8

- Visit three consignment shops and record findings in record book.
- Visit three Goodwill type shops and record findings in record book.
- Select and purchase an outfit for yourself that would be suitable for school or a school activity. These garments are to be purchased at consignment or Goodwill type shops. Price matters.
- Model outfit in county Fashion Show at the County Fair.
- Exhibit poster explaining what you learned about Frugal Fashions.
- A completed record sheet signed by your 4-H leader must be presented along with your exhibit at project check-in at the fair.

Advanced - Grades 9,10,11,12

- Visit three consignment shops and record findings in record book.
- Visit three Goodwill type shops and record findings in record book.
- Select and purchase an outfit for yourself that would be suitable for any of the following activities: school, special occasion, sportswear, dress-up, free-choice. These garments are to be purchased at consignment or Goodwill type shops. Price matters.
- Model outfit in county Fashion Show at the County Fair.
- Exhibit poster explaining what you learned about Frugal Fashions.
- A completed record sheet signed by your 4-H leader must be presented along with your exhibit at project check-in at the fair.